April 21, 2024
Fourth Sunday of Easter
Good Shepherd Sunday

Respond to the Lord's sacrificial love with gratitude, trust, and love.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that he suffered and died for us because of the depth of God's love for us, because that is what a Good Shepherd does for those in his care. How should we respond to such love? With gratitude, trust, and love, by listening to his voice in our lives and being obedient to his commands. This is not always an easy task, but one with which the Lord is happy to assist us.

In the first reading, Peter testifies that a disabled man has been healed in the name of Jesus Christ, the One through whom salvation comes. In the second reading, John reflects on the Father's love for us., through which he has made us his children. In the Gospel, Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who knows his sheep and freely lays down his life for them.

World Day Of Prayer for Vocations April 21

Heavenly Father, bless your Church and most especially your Church in the Diocese of St. Paul. With an abundance of Holy and zealous priests, deacons, religious and seminarians.

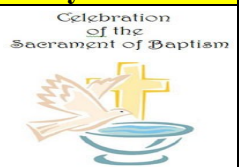

Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world the special graces that their lives require.

Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that through him, with him and in him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully always and everywhere. With the Virgin Mother Mary, we ask this through your Son Jesus Christ. Amen
