April 20 2025
Easter Sunday

Live each day with a focus on what is above.

Today we rejoice in the Lord’s resurrection, his victory over death. Through this victory, the Lord has opened the gates of heaven for us and offered us forgiveness of sins and eternal joy in his presence. This eternal density calls us to live always with a focus on what is above—to orient our earthly activities and concerns toward what is most conducive to a life of faith in the Lord.

In the first reading, Peter speaks about Jesus’ ministry, death and resurrection. He recounts his appearances to chosen witnesses, whom he commissioned to preach in his name. Paul urges the Colossians to focus on what is heavenly. In the Gospel, Mary Magdalene discovers the tomb empty and tells Simon Peter and another disciple who run to the tomb and see the burial cloths.

Pro Life Alberta

Pro-Life Alberta is asking that people let Danielle Smith know that we agree with her stance on getting parental consent on minor medical procedures. If medical procedures performed on minors require the consent of a parent or guardian, why is it different when it comes to abortion? Pro-Life Alberta wants to encourage Premier Smith to take the next step. Let’s make sure that parental consent is required for every medical decision involving minors, including abortion. Please e-mail Premier Smith at premier@gov.ab.ca your support for this movement.

The Sacred Paschal Triduum

Through his Paschal Mystery, the Lord Jesus redeemed the human race and gave perfect glory to the Father. By dying, Christ destroyed our death; by rising; he restored our life. For this reason, the Easter Triduum, when we celebrate the suffering, Death and Resurrection of our Lord, is the high point of the Liturgical Year. The Easter Solemnity is to the year what Sunday is to the week.

The celebration of the Easter Triduum opens with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, reaches it’s climax in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Evening Prayer 2 on Easter Sunday.
