Sixth Sunday of Easter

Home to the Holy Spirit, our hearts become the eternal dwelling place of Christ.

Christians on pilgrimage to the Holy Land are often greeted with the words, “Welcome home.” Indeed, the Church began in Jerusalem; Jesus died right outside of its walls; and it is also home to the first council recounted in today’s first reading. Truly, our home is not in a particular place but in Christ, through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus gives light to the new Jerusalem, which is the eternal city, the kingdom of God.

In the first reading, the Apostles send a letter to Antioch explaining which practices {with regard to the Mosaic law} are necessary for Gentiles who have come to believe in the Gospel. In the second reading, John describes his vision of the new Jerusalem, which shines with Christ’s eternal light. Jesus, in the Gospel, foretells the coming of the Advocate. The Holy Spirit, Jesus tells his disciples, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.

The Pope’s Pastoral works May 25

This collection provides an opportunity for Catholics to make a financial offering to assist the Holy Father. One-third of the funds collected is for what is traditionally known as Peter’s Pence: donations used by the Pope for his charitable contributions to those most in need throughout the world, as well as for support of the Holy See and its activities. Two-thirds of the Collection is to support the Holy Father in administering the Holy See and serving the Universal Church..

Living Faith
an in person Day of Reflection

a five-part video and discussion series which helps us move to truly being a disciple of Jesus no matter where we are in our relationship with Christ and his Church.

Each session involves

- watching some video content,
- engaging in discussion and
- setting goals to grow in the spiritual life.

Each session focuses on an essential aspect of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus —

- prayer,
- the sacraments,
- ongoing formation,
- Catholic community and
- personal apostolate.
